THE TEXTBOOK TRUST IN ORE-

The passage of the Daly textbook bill was an expected victory over the school book trust. But the people have not yet secured the fruit of that victory. Many days will intervene until that law can be put into effect. How effectually it will be put into effect in the interest of the masses of the people, who are dependent on the public school for the edcation of their children, remains to be

The bill contemplates that the governor shall select five persons who shall choose the textbooks for the state. It is a deplorable fact that the public officials of this state in charge of our puberintendent of schools down to princiofficial position to foster and promote stitution later. the interests of the trust.
